KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? You should be aware that the price of Units can go down as well as up. The value of the product and its dividends or coupons may rise or fall. The following are key risk factors that may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:	Refer to Para 9 and 15 of the Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.
Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to market and interest rate risk. Prices of securities may go up or down in response to changes in the economic conditions, the interest rates, and the market's perception of securities of the relevant country. These may cause the prices of Units to go up or down as the prices of Units are based on the current market value of the investments of the Fund. • You are exposed to the risk of investing in foreign securities. The investments of the Fund may be affected by political instability, exchange controls, changes in taxation, foreign investment policies and other restrictions and controls. • You are exposed to foreign exchange risk. As the investments of the Fund may be denominated in foreign currencies (other than the base currency of the Fund i.e. RMB), fluctuations of the exchange rates of foreign currencies against the base currency of the Fund (i.e. RMB) may affect the value of Units.
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Fund is not listed and you can redeem only on Dealing Days.
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to risks regarding QFI status. You should note that the Manager's QFI status may be suspended or revoked and that this may adversely affect the Fund's performance by requiring the Fund to dispose of its securities holdings. You should also note that redemption requests may not be processed in a timely manner due to adverse changes in relevant laws or regulations. • You are exposed to repatriation and liquidity risks. Certain restrictions imposed by the Chinese government on QFIs may have an adverse effect on the Fund's liquidity and performance. Any restrictions on repatriation of the invested capital and net profits may impact the Fund's ability to meet redemption requests from Holders. Furthermore, as the China Custodian's review on authenticity and compliance is conducted on each repatriation, the repatriation may be delayed or

even rejected by the China Custodian in case of non-compliance with the QFI rules and regulations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to sole broker / counterparty risk. While the Manager will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to obtain the best possible result for each transaction entered into by the Fund, there may be circumstances requiring transactions to be executed through the use of a sole broker or counterparty which may not be consistent with best execution standards. • You are exposed to PRC market risk. Investing in the securities markets in the PRC is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally and the risks specific to the PRC market. Investments in the PRC will be sensitive to any significant change in political, social or economic policy in the PRC. Such sensitivity may adversely affect the capital growth and thus the performance of these investments. • You are exposed to income distribution risk. Sources of income for distribution include dividend and/or interest income and/or capital gains derived from the investments of the Fund. Such dividend and/or interest income may be adversely affected by events such as but are not limited to companies suffering unexpected losses, having lower than expected dividends and adverse exchange rate fluctuations. In addition to distributions out of distributable income and/or capital gains, the Manager may make capital distributions to Holders at such time as they deem fit in accordance with the provisions of the Deed. Where distributions are paid out of capital, the NAV of the relevant Class will be reduced and this will be reflected in the realisation price of the Units of that Class. Such distributions may also result in reduced future returns to Holders. • You are exposed to tax risk. Investing in the Fund may have tax implications for a Holder depending on the particular circumstances of the Holder. Furthermore, by investing in securities (including shares and debt instruments) issued by PRC tax resident enterprises, irrespective of whether such securities are issued or distributed onshore or offshore, the Fund may be subject to PRC taxes. • You are exposed to financial derivative instruments (“FDIs”) risk. The Manager may invest in FDIs for the purposes of hedging and/or efficient portfolio management and/or optimising returns and/or for such other purposes as may be permitted by the Authority. FDIs involve risks different from, and in some cases, greater than, the risks presented by more traditional investments. Some of the risks associated with FDIs are market risk, management risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, moratorium risk, capital control risk, tax risk and leverage risk. The Fund may invest into underlying funds which use or invest in FDIs, and it is possible that the Fund’s NAV may be subject to volatility due to the Fund’s or the underlying funds’ usage or investment in FDIs. • You should be aware that your investment in the Fund may be exposed to other risks of an exceptional nature from time to time.
